Dear Denny:

Thank you for applying to UC San Diego. After careful review of your application, we are unable to offer you admission for Fall 2023.

UC San Diego continues to receive many more applications from highly qualified applicants than we can accommodate. For Fall 2023, we received more than 130,000 applications for a first-year class of approximately 6,900.

Our applicant pool was highly competitive, with students demonstrating strong academic achievements and exceptional personal talents and abilities, making it simply not possible for us to offer admission to all qualified students.

If attending UC San Diego remains a goal for you, please consider applying as a transfer student after you have successfully completed the admission requirements for transfers at a community college or another university. Every year, transfer students represent approximately 33% of our incoming class. Please visit our website for more information.

We encourage you to take pride in your accomplishments and continue to pursue your educational goals with confidence. We wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

Blia Yang
