Dear Denny:

Congratulations! On behalf of the Admissions Commitee, the School of Computing & Information and the University of Pittsburgh, I am pleased to offer you acceptance for the 2023 Fall Term, beginning Monday, August 28, 2023 with an intended field of study of Computer Science.

Your application demonstrated hard work, determination and a forward-thinking attitude. These are just a few of the characteristics that make you an excellent fit for the University. This acceptance symbolizes the bridge between all you have accomplished and all you will set out to achieve.

At Pitt, you will join a diverse community of students who are encouraged to explore their passions through Pitt's personalized, cutting-edge research, outside-of-the-classroom opportunities, community involvement, and much more. We are confident in your potential for a successful future here. With the support of Pitt's inclusive community of alumni, faculty, staff, and classmates, your future is yours to build. Imagine what you will accomplish when you converge everything you stand for with everything we offer. If you can dream it, Pitt will help you do it.

While you take time to celebrate, I invite you and your family to plan a visit for our upcoming Admitted Student events, where you will experience campus for the first time as an accepted student, a feeling like none other. Keep an eye on your e-mail for your invitation to the upcoming programs.

To maintain your place in the incoming class, you must continue the quality performance you have demonstrated thus far. Considering your accomplishments to date, we are confident you will be successful. Your next step in the enrollment process is to commit to Pitt by accepting your offer of admission. Enrollment guidelines can be found on the Pitt Bound webpage. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Once again, congratulations on your acceptance to the University of Pittsburgh!

Hail to Pitt,

Kellie Kane

ENROLLMENT PROCESS

➢ Commit to Pitt! The first step to becoming a Panther is to Commit to Pitt. Accept your admission, confirm your residency, and pay your $300 enrollment fee by May 1. The enrollment fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. Note: If you were admitted after April 15, you have two weeks from the date of your admissions decision to submit the enrollment fee.

➢ Apply for financial aid. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and see what types of federal and state financial aid you qualify for. Pitt's identifying code is: 008815

➢ Register for classes. Once you commit to Pitt, we'll be in touch about online orientation, getting connected with your academic advisor, and registering for classes. Keep an eye on your brand new pitt.edu e-mail address!

➢ Find your new home. On-campus housing is guaranteed to those starting in the fall, for three years as long as you commit to Pitt by May 1 and meet all of your housing deadlines. If you would prefer to live off-campus, check out our Office of Off-Campus Living for resources to find your perfect home.

➢ Mark your calendar. Fall term classes begin on August 28, 2023.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If I applied for the David C. Frederick Honors College, when will I hear about my decision?

Applicants who wish to be considered for admission to David C. Frederick Honors College must submit their completed application for admission and required essay no later than December 1. Students meeting the December 1 deadline will be notified of their David C. Frederick Honors College admissions decision, as a group, on or before March 1.

When will I hear about Pitt Scholarships?

Students submitting a completed application for admission, along with their personal statement or Common Application essay, by December 1, are automatically reviewed for merit scholarships. The Scholarship Committee meets from October through February and reviews admitted candidates on a weekly basis. It is not uncommon for the Committee to review a student's credentials several times before making a final decision. Therefore, while some students are informed of a scholarship award shortly after being admitted, many more are not notified until much later. All students selected to receive a scholarship will be notified no later than March 1.
